Reports of Curators & Committee Chairpersons:

Curators: Ron Saunders reported he, Cheryl Saunders, Sally Woodman and Diane Moring put the Christmas lights on the tree at the Primary Schoolhouse. He indicated it is too difficult getting the lights to the top using an extension pole and we will have to do something different next year like renting a lift. There was discussion on putting the lights on the building instead of the tree. We will address the issue in 2019.

Cheryl Saunders received a picture of the old Wilder's Store building that housed the telegraph and post offices from Donald Richards. His family ran the offices. Donald told Cheryl he would donate the telegraph sign sometime in the future. He has a lot of information on the town; his family has been here for many generations.

Ron Saunders reported he walked around the Marshall House and noticed roofing shingles on the ground. He thought they came from the south side of the roof. Bill will check in the spring with the Town. Ron reiterated the basement window at the Primary Schoolhouse needs repair.
